21 April 1951

My Dear Mr. Ambassador,

Thank you for your cordial invitation to meet Dr. Mackenzie and Dr. Solandt on Tuesday afternoon, April twenty-fourth. I wish it were possible for me to do so but, unfortunately, I shall be away on that day.

Mr. Jackson tells me that he is already committed to an engagement of long standing and, therefore, must also decline your kind invitation.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

12/
W. B. Smith
